NEGROES' ESCAPADE

Stir Up Wailuku Town by Running Away With Wives of Others—Answered Police With Pistol Shot—Finally Landed in Wailuku Jail.

Wailuku, Jan. 14.—Some of the newly imported colored laborers from Tennessee for the Wailuku Sugar Co. are already showing their prowess in desperate deeds. Last evening (Sunday) about 6:30 o'clock two colored gentlemen stole away two colored women belonging to the other members of the gang. The husbands finding out the whereabouts of their wives, reported the matter to Sheriff Baldwin who dispatched police officers Manuel Sequera (colored Portuguese) and Miguel Paresa.

On arriving at the house where the women were secreted—near the sand hills on the Waihee side of Spreckelsville—and when about ten feet away from the house one husband called his wife's name and the latter made an answer from within the building. The husband called a second time, but this was answered with a pistol shot fired from within the house, the shot whizzing by Manuel Sequera's head.

The officers in an instant knew that they had to face a band of bandits, so the aid of all the natives in the neighborhood was called, and in a few minutes the house was surrounded by almost the entire neighborhood, men, women and children.

The police rushed into the house and found the women in there, but the two men had disappeared in the darkness. The women were marched to Wailuku jail.

Sheriff Baldwin, upon hearing of the shooting, went out with a number of his police officers and instituted a search for the two missing men, and after going here and there following hard upon the trails, the latter were found in bed in their quarters in Wailuku, with their wet and mud covered clothes on. They were pulled out of bed and marched to jail where they are now awaiting trial before Magistrate McKay tomorrow.

Will Hudson, the colored man who fired the pistol, threw his weapon into the Spreckels ditch soon after firing and it has not been found up to this writing.

The two women were brought to jail again today and they both recognized Will Hudson as the one who fired the shot. The other colored man's case will be nolle pross'd. The charge against Will Hudson is assault and battery with a dangerous weapon with intent to kill, and will likely be committed for trial at the coming June term of the Second Circuit Court.

PROF. FRYE'S EDUCATION PENNY SAVINGS BANK

Havana, Dec. 20.—Prof. Frye, the Superintendent of Public Schools in Cuba, has just issued over his official signature and through the Spanish newspaper "Diario de la Marina" a sensational "proclamation" to the Cuban people.

He speaks in derogatory terms of the Government and of intervention in general by the Anglo-Saxon race. He urges that all words offensive to Spain be blotted out of the Cuban hymn "Bayamesa," and that others be substituted which would be calculated to inspire the natives to prepare to drive out and resist all foreign foes to the island or to its absolute independence.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Two weeks from today, Miss Ackerman will speak to members of the Y. W. C. A. in regard to her travels. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Waterhouse.

The second course of Terayson lectures by Mrs. W. F. Frear will begin early in February. It is expected that the Travel Club will resume its work at the same time.

At the last meeting of the Association, Mrs. H. E. Coleman, general secretary, presented her resignation, the same to take effect June 1st. This was accepted with regret.

The membership of the Y. W. C. A. is now 225.

The Murphy Meetings.

Mr. Francis Murphy had another large audience at Central Union church last night for his second meeting. About a hundred recruits were gained for the army of abstinence. The lecturer was in his best vein and linked anecdote with appeal in a way to enchain constant attention. Miss Yarrow led the singing. Temperance workers are organized to drum up people for the meetings during the hour before the opening at 7:30. Mr. Murphy holds forth every evening at Central Union church. This afternoon he is talking to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

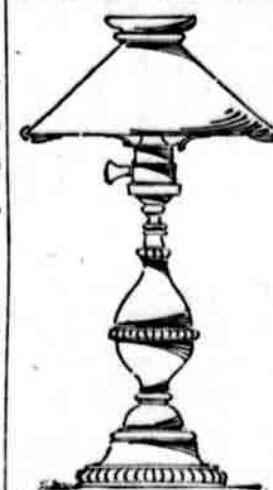

Approaching Maui Wedding.
